

Cardinal Scrimmage

Tuesday evening the High school team, coached by Kent Weiler led a scrimmage involving several schools. The Cardinals had a good showing, there as plenty to remain optimistic about the upcoming season. The scrimmage allowed for the opportunity to serve as a test for the team, linking skills learned with demonstration in competition.

Wild Cards Intermediate

Wild Cards met Tuesday night and for the first time watched high school competition. Participants in the Wild Cards session received coaching in small groups talking them through match progression and technique. This effort was made to link the skills practice to using them in competition and showing Wild Cards

Glacier Creek Middle

Glacier Creek participated in the Hartford Middle School Tournament. In a very tough tournament 3 individuals placed. Nick Esbesck was the lone champ from Glacier Creek placing 1st, brother Cambell Esbeck placed 2nd and Adam Hunter finished the place-winners out at 3rd. Great job to all wrestlers who participated.

Kromery Middle

Kromrey wrestling travelled to Waunakee Tuesday night, picking up victories were Shamar Madlock, Ryan Cuccia, and Max Riehemann. On Saturday the wrestling team travelled to Hartford to compete in an individual tournament, coming away with wins were Andrew Harper and taking home the gold medal was Jamarius Turner. The next match is Tuesday at Lodi
